

Victoria Ginty

"Unfinished Business" (Blue Door Records), the new album by Victoria (Release Date: Friday, May 4, 2018) captures the vocalist's unique, soulful blues style. Recorded at GCR Audio Studios in Buffalo, the eleven tracks (eight originals) on Unfinished Business also fuse R&B, Soul, and Americana, sure to please the palette of the most avid music connoisseurs.

The record has consistently charted high on the Blues and Contemporary Blues radio charts since its release while receiving stellar print reviews. Victoria (nee Hawkes), a former BMG recording artist, is no stranger to success in the music business, but her latest effort has been a lifetime in the making.

Victoria and her band Ladyhawke look to be touring in support of the record in late 2018 and into next year.

What the Media is saying

She has a terrific voice, loaded with sultry undertones and a sassy edge that sets the hairs on the back of my neck at attention and the band behind her cook like a New Orleans Gumbo jamboree. .. Andy Snipper, Music-News.com

Great singers bring great material to life. That's what makes Victoria Ginty and "Unfinished Business" such a joy to listen to! Sheryl and Don Crow... Nashville Blues Society from the horns to the intense guitar riffs every bot of this recording is an experience like no other. Hopefully a more expanded tour is in their future... Garry Goldstein, Highway 61 Blues
